

☐☐☐☐☐☐ Anarya (Fools)

An Anarya (fool) is one with demonic qualities and who consistently violates Dharma.

According to the Gita, Chapter 16:

Demonic Qualities:

Bhagavad Gita(Chapter 16 Verses 4-17)

(4) Ostentation, arrogance, excessive pride, anger, as also harshness and ignorance, these, O Bharata (Arjuna), are the endowments of him who is born with the demoniac nature.

(7)Those who are demoniac do not know what is to be done and what is not to be done. Neither cleanliness nor proper behavior nor truth is found in them.

(8)They say that this world is unreal, with no foundation, no God in control. They say it is produced of sex desire and has no cause other than lust.

(9)Following such conclusions, the demoniac, who are lost to themselves and who have no intelligence, engage in unbeneficial, horrible works meant to destroy the world.

(10)Taking shelter of insatiable lust and absorbed in the conceit of pride and false prestige, the demoniac, thus illusioned, are always sworn to unclean work, attracted by the impermanent.

(11-12)They believe that to gratify the senses is the prime necessity of human civilization. Thus until the end of life their anxiety is immeasurable. Bound by a network of hundreds of thousands of desires and absorbed in lust and anger, they secure money by illegal means for sense gratification.

(13-15)“The demoniac person thinks: “So much wealth do I have today, and I will gain more according to my schemes. So much is mine now, and it will increase in the future, more and more. He is my enemy, and I have killed him, and my other enemies will also be killed. I am the lord of everything. I am the enjoyer. I am perfect, powerful and happy. I am the richest man, surrounded by aristocratic relatives. There is none so powerful and happy as I am. I shall perform sacrifices, I shall give some charity, and thus I shall rejoice." In this way, such persons are deluded by ignorance."

(16) Thus perplexed by various anxieties and bound by a network of illusions, they become too strongly attached to sense enjoyment and fall down into hell.

(17) Self-complacent and always impudent, deluded by wealth and false prestige, they sometimes proudly perform sacrifices in name only, without following any rules or regulations.

In addition to the above, other qualities of Anarya are those who consistently violate what I have figured out.

All Anarya are DFIs.

Anarya appear frightening and always try to frighten and bully others into submission. They are actually cowardly bullies and will be the first to turn tail, run and beg for mercy if they are faced with threats or rebellion.

The Srutis and Shanti Parva Part 1 Section XXI declare :

He who frightens others is frightened himself; while he who frightens not, is not himself frightened.

NOTE:

In a lot of articles I use the term DFI – DFI is pronounced as Diffy.

D stands for Dumbass/devious. I stands for idiot.

Can you guess what the F stands for?
